“ Early mornings are when I think of you the most brother. When the sun is just rising and shines through the trees and the chill in the air reminds me of our comparing my southern cold to your cold. Remembering your laughing when I would say it was too cold to lay block or be installing shingles. I'm certainly going to miss you Doug. You had a big heart and we remember you for always being willing to help anyone in need. This week I remembered when we were kids trying to see the suckers stranded in the corner lot near about dark. You and I argued over something and we got separated. I ran all over town looking for you. I was so scared and sick to my stomach. Somehow you made it home without me. This time I'm not scared and I'm not sick to my stomach. I already know you made it home. Romans 3:10 There is none righteous, no not one. Romans 3:23 For All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. John 3:16 For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life. Your fruit of the spirit (Galatians 5:22-23) showed us what Jesus already knew, that you Believed in Him for everlasting life. Therefore Janice and I don't grieve as those that have no hope. We know we will see you again in the presence of Jesus. This old world is fast changing into exactly like the Bible said it would, in the last days. These are the last days, the rapture of the Church is at hand, Perhaps Today! Maranatha! "Come Lord Jesus" With Much Love, Vernon and Janice
