Ashley Diane Graham

2/25/86 - 3/15/21

So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

- 2 Corinthians 4:18

Surrounded by her loving family, Ashley Diane Graham went to be with the Lord on March 15, 2021.

She was preceded in death by her father, Darryl Lee Graham, Jr., grandparents Lloyd and Minnie Sheaffer, and William and Joyce Reisinger, all of Shermans Dale. Surviving are her parents Penny and Ronald Reisinger, sister and brother-in-law Heather (Graham) and Joe Luckenbaugh, niece and nephew Grace and Grady, grandparents Darryl and Sharon Graham, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Born on February 25, 1986, Ashley would grow to be a person of resilient strength, a caring heart, and the most contagious laugh. Her creative flair was evident early on and transformed into a love for fine art. A graduate of West Perry and Pennsylvania College of Art and Design, Ashley left her mark. She was active in sports at a young age, from softball, to basketball, field hockey, and track. Her artistic talent was beyond compare. She could capture a moment, a feeling, with the click of a camera or a flick of paint. She was an inspiring artist. She was employed as a manager at several restaurants, last working at Sophia's at Walden in Mechanicsburg.

Ashley's loving and thoughtful heart was central to her character. She cherished her family. She adored her friendships and customers. Your love for Ashley brought deep happiness that uplifted her soul.

Ashley painted the world a beautiful place. Her laughter, her joy, her love, will be everlasting, and carry on not only in our hearts, but in the rain that kisses your face, in the sunrise that greets you good morning, in the wind hugging you tight, in sweet dandelion wishes, in sunsets that leave you speechless, in quiet snowflakes whispering by, and in the stars twinkling good night. Ashley has made the world a brighter place. Her radiant, loving self shining brilliantly, a part of us all forever.

“ I can't even imagine the pain you carry. May it swiftly turn to only sweet and loving memories that fill your thoughts of your time with this amazing young women. She was as many have said, a kind, warm and friendly soul. When you saw her at Sophia's she always a smile!

May her soul Rest In Peace and when you think of her I pray your tears quickly dry and smiles emerge with a peacefulness that comes over those of you who miss her every day.

And what beautiful art she created, did not know but sure wish she sold her work. I'd buy it in a heartbeat. It show her tenderness and spirit. It draws you in, just as she did.

“ Penny, Heather and family - my sincerest condolences. I still remember sleepovers at your home.

*Along the shore I spy a ship As she set out to sea;
She spreads her sails and sniffs the breeze
And slips away from me.
I watch her fading image shrink,
As she moves on and on, Until at last she's but a speck,
Then someone says, "She's gone."
Gone where? Gone only from our sight
And from our farewell cries;
That ship will somewhere reappear to other eager eyes.
Beyond the dim horizon's rim, resound the welcome drums,
And while we're crying, There she goes!
They're shouting, Here she comes!
We're built to cruise for but a while
Upon the trackless sea
Until one day we sail away into infinity.
