“Bonnie, the daughter of my great-uncle, Charles, lived next door to my grandmother, Nannie (Julia Myers). She loved working in the garden, her cats, and helping Nan with various and sundry things. After Nan died, we fell out of touch and that is something I regret. I know she's now at peace and with her Lord.

“When I was little and going to the one room school house close to Bonnie's home, we would walk to her home to get the water for the school. Her and her father Charles were the kindest and friendly people you would ever want to meet. Susan Kugle Morrow

*Bonnie is my great uncle Charles daughter. She had many health problems her whole life but her childhood was especially rough. I spent summers out there
She was a hard worker. Always there to help Nan (Julia Myers) and my mom (Norma Myers Perovich)*

Bonnie was our neighbor and she was always out in the yard working. One day she asked me who she could get to tear down her old outhouse. I told her some man was buying them so I contacted him for her. The look on her face when he offered her $250 was priceless.
