

Charles Elwood Corman

August 30, 2019

Charles Elwood Corman, 81, of Shermans Dale went into eternal rest on Monday, August 26, 2019 in Perry Village, New Bloomfield.

Born January 10, 1938 in Shermans Dale, he was the son of the late Arthur and Lillian (Toland) Corman.

He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He was a retired welder at Vaulk Manufacturing in New Kingston and enjoyed car shows, NASCAR and drag races. In addition, he was a United States Army veteran.

He was the widower of Jennie Ebersole Corman (1987) Surviving are a two daughters, Linda Toland of Enola and Judith Phiri, with whom he lived, of Shermans Dale. A granddaughter Amanda Corman, a Brother, Richard Corman and a sister, Sylvia Turnbaugh of Elliottsburg. In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by a brother Jack Corman, and granddaughter Jolene Toland.

Graveside services will be held in Young's Church Cemetery, Shermans Dale, On Saturday, September 14, 2019 at 11 AM. Boyer Family Funeral Home is honored to handle the arrangements for the Corman Family.