

Charles Edwin Fritz

October 5, 1960 - October 14, 2022

Charles Edwin Fritz, 62, of Shermans Dale passed away on Friday, October 14, 2022. Unfortunately, his kind heart stopped beating suddenly, unexpectedly, while he was sleeping.

He was born in Harrisburg on October 5, 1960, and was the son of the late James P. Fritz and Adda J. Fortney of Duncannon.

Surviving is his sister, Lorry A. Stepp of Duncannon and husband Thomas. He is also survived by many friends who loved him as family.

He was employed at the Clark's Ferry Truck Stop as a manager from 1985 until 2010 when he worked at the True Value stores in both Duncannon and New Bloomfield. In 2016 he worked at Bridgewater Doors in Mechanicsburg and more recently at Bimbos Bakery in Carlisle. He loved hiking, history, animals and roller coasters and he loved people. He always seemed happy and tried to help lost souls find their way. His motto was "Love one another"

Services will be held at 4 PM on Sunday, November 6, 2022 at the Watts-Buffalo Community Center, 57 Blacksnake Road, Duncannon.

Boyer Family Funeral Home, Duncannon, is honored to handle the arrangements for the Fritz/Stepp Family.

“ I know Charlie my whole life. Being a distance cousin on my dad's side of family.knowing his dad and mother sharing Time the assembly God church in Duncannon with grandparents cook as kid I was at the farm.. he was such a warm hearted individual .. at the truck stop and every place. We liked dueling over different political views and then laugh at each other. Because we still respected each other. I said we go fishing sadly we did go . What a great guy

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Charlie was a friend in high school, I remember sharing a similar sense of humor with him. I was glad to see him the very few times I ran into him at the truck stop and in New Bloomfield hardware stores. As little as I saw him since high school if I can come up with one word it would be “kind” to describe Charlie.
