“ My name is Betsy, I'm from Virginia.
I went for a drive and found Snyders cemetery. I've always liked cemeteries...they're peaceful. I visited every grave and cleaned each stone..if there were leaves or weeds...i uprighted things, even a fallen headstone, and I came to Daderienne's grave and had a wonderful, very special experience. I had to come back to say Goodbye, it's time for me to go back to Virginia.
But I wanted to share my experience that I had with her. I talked to her and the flower 🌻 would spin sometimes. I knew she was listening. I'm so sorry for your loss but please find happiness in knowing that your daughter has affected a stranger's life. As I type, the flower is rocking back and forth as if in agreement....there's little to know breeze here now. God bless you dear Daderienne....your flower is spinning now. 🙏

“ Without question, Daderienne was extremely well loved by some of the greatest parents a child could hope for, and she will certainly be missed from now into eternity. We hope and pray you can find comfort and peace during this difficult time. We are here, ready, willing and waiting to try and help ease the pain in any way we can. Although there are no words or anything on this Earth that could ever make up for such a loss, we sincerely hope that Dade continues to live on in spirit, and through the many memories she allowed us to have with her. With love, always...

“ Fare you well my honey
Fare you well my only true one
All the birds that were singing
Have flown except you alone
Going to leave this broke-down palace
On my hands and my knees I will roll, roll, roll
Make myself a bed by the waterside
In my time, in my time, I will roll, roll, roll
In a bed, in a bed
By the waterside I will lay my head
Listen to the river sing sweet songs
To rock my soul
River gonna take me
Sing me sweet and sleepy
Sing me sweet and sleepy
All the way back back home
It's a far gone lullaby
Sung many years ago
Mama, mama, many worlds I've come
Since I first left home
Going home, going home
By the waterside I will rest my bones
Listen to the river sing sweet songs
To rock my soul
Going to plant a weeping willow
On the banks green edge it will grow, grow, grow
Sing a lullaby beside the water
Lovers come and go, the river roll, roll, roll
Fare you well, fare you well
I love you more than words can tell
Listen to the river sing sweet songs
To rock my soul

“ Dear Dade,
I only met you a few times and in those times I could see how amazing and fun loving and free spirited you were. I wish I would have known how much you were hurting. I wish you would have known me better to know you could have talked to me about anything. We can't change what has happened. We can only learn from your heartache and pray we can help others in their darkest times. I will hold your laughter close to my ears and your smile close to my heart. I will forever think of you when I see a sloth. I know many will say you're not my niece but in my heart you always will be and I will love and miss you dearly. RIP Dade.
