

David Eugene Blattenberger Jr.

July 10, 1935 - January 17, 2024

David "Fuzz" Blattenberger, the son of David E. and Anna M. passed away on January 17th, 2024 at the age of 88. David is survived by his wife and "pal" of 51 years, Rosalyn. David attended Penn State University and graduated from Cal Poly Tech with a Bachelors degree in engineering. He served as a sergeant in the US Marines, managed an engineering department for ITT Telecommunications in Harrisburg, and retired from being a teacher and Principal at the Perry Christian Academy in Newport, Pa. He was an active and energetic member of the Newport Assembly of God Church, serving as a deacon for many years. He conducted a discipleship class for the Youth Challenge International Bible Institute in Sunbury which he greatly enjoyed.

David loved his family devotedly, his wife and son were his world. He treasured his grandchildren. David was an assertive leader who knew what he wanted to accomplish and how to do it. He was thorough and meticulous in his work. He was a Patriot, a proud Marine. He was happiest on his tractor taking care of "Pap's Park". He could be described as thoughtful, true, faithful, polite, friendly, well mannered and willing to hear the ideas of others. When asked how he was doing his reply was always "Great, 'cause of who the Lord is."

In addition to his wife, he is also survived by his son David, granddaughter, Julie Fairbaugh (Jeremy), two great grand children and a daughter-in-law, Lisa Blattenberger. Additional survivors are his brother Charles of Ephrata, nephew Ryan and nieces Casey Kmett and Diane Gruber. He is preceded in death by a brother, Paul, of Duncannon.

Services will be held at 2:00 pm on Sunday, January 21, at the Newport Assembly of God Church, 253 N. 6th Street, Newport, Pa with Pastor Gary Bellis officiating. A viewing will be held one hour prior to the service. Burial, with full military honors, will be in Union Cemetery, Liverpool.
