

David F. Stoke

June 28, 1944 - January 5, 2026

David F. Stoke, 81, of New Bloomfield, went to be with the Lord on Monday, January 5, 2026, at his home. He was the son of the late B. Lee and Inez (Stambaugh) Stoke of Blain. After graduation from Blain Union High School in 1962, he received a bachelor's degree in music from Westminster Choir College and did his post graduate study at Glassboro State College. He became a high school choral director and church music minister. He retired from Providence United Methodist Church in Charlotte, NC. Under his direction, the Chancel Choir performed many major venues including singing at the Avery Fisher Hall in New York City. He was formerly the assistant conductor of the Oratorio Singers of Charlotte and the Youth Oratorio of Charlotte. For years, he was the chorus master of the opera "Carolina." He was founder and director of Carolina Choral Artists, a 24 voice Choral ensemble composed of professional singers. He served on the North Carolina ACDA Board as chairperson for standards and repertoire in the church music area. He also served as a choral clinician in North Carolina, New Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Upon retirement, he became Head Manager of the Belk Theatre at Blumenthal Performing Arts Center of Charlotte.

He loved to travel and took many trips with friends and family, touring much of Europe and Russia. Upon becoming aware of his illness, he said, "I've had a good life and have had opportunities many have not."

Surviving are three sons, Scot and wife Krissy of Woodstock, Ga., David Michael and wife Joy of Lexington NC and Laban and wife Christine of Lilesville, NC. 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Two sisters, Donna Bistline of Mechanicsburg and Patricia Reisinger of Blain. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Elwood.

At his request, there will be no services.

The Boyer Family is honored to handle the arrangements for the Stoke/Reisinger Families.

“ The smile, the hearty laugh, the swagger and ability...Miss you David here at PUMC after all these years. I remember when I “threatened to join the choir”(and I can’t sing!) and he said “come on, I’ll fix you up”. See you later

“ My heartfelt condolences to Donna, Pat and all of the children and grandchildren on the loss of their beloved David. I have lots of wonderful memories of BUHS basketball, band and of course Methodist church and Sunday school services shared with Dave as well as times on the farm with your mother and dad.

“ David was always such a friendly, familiar presence at Blumenthal, even after he retired. When I first joined the BA Family as a Volunteer (now Senior Usher) in 2019, I distinctly remember looking forward to working Charlotte Symphony Orchestra events knowing that David would be the House Manager. He led our briefings with a detailed rendition and breakdown of whatever CSO performance we were about to listen to. Full of such knowledge and passion for the arts, I know I speak for many of my colleagues when I say that his passing has left a deep void. I'm comforted to know he is no longer in pain and hope his transition to the after life, whatever that may look like, is a smooth one. Rest easy, friend.

“ My favorite memory of David was as a mentor and friend to our children who sang in his choirs. For the young children’s choirs, parents were asked to take turns sitting in the rehearsals and monitoring behavior. One day, David’s assistant director was leading the rehearsal and discussing the upcoming Trinity Sunday. She mentioned that Trinity Sunday honored 3 important names in the church and asked the children to guess them. They immediately got God and Jesus but there was a long silence when she said “That’s right! Good for you. Can you guess the third name?”. Finally, a little girl guessed, “Mr. Stoke?”. The assistant director, the other parent and I later agreed that was a pretty good guess.

“ *I'm sorry for your loss
I had the privilege of working with David for about eight years here at the theater, where he was the House Manager and a steady, familiar presence.*

One thing I will always remember about David is his bow ties. He wore so many different ones, and I always made a point to comment on them. They became part of who he was to me wearing with quiet confidence never flashy, just unmistakably David. He will be missed all who knew him. Brenda W.

“ David holds a special place in my heart because of who he was to my son William, Jr. He made volunteer days much brighter for us and he SAW William. I relished each moment he spent with us as he greeted William with the biggest sincerest smiles, complemented his various bowties that they had in common and shared stories of his own many ties. David was proud to share anything we had in common and was a pure human being My husband had the honor of meeting David when we were patrons and received the same reception as if he too was a long time family member. His immediate comments were how David carried himself as a gentle giant among giants. David was one of a kind, gentle and loving to both of us and everyone who knew him. When he retired, he left a void in our hearts. I have missed him tremendously but I know that he will bring joy in his new heavenly home.

David was such a joyful person all the time. It was a pleasure to volunteer at the theater when David was there. He was the ultimate professional, and his bow ties helped define his "dapperness." I missed him when he retired, but had an occasion to see him when he came here for a show last year or circa 2024. My heartfelt condolences to the family. He was loved and will be missed.

I knew David while ushering at Blumenthal. I loved seeing him and he always had a smile and a welcoming greeting. I looked forward to his explanation of the performances and learned so much. I loved the very stylish bow ties he always wore and still missed him at every performance that I was an usher. He made the world a brighter place. Keeping his family in my heart.

“ David was my choir director and voice teacher about 30+ years. He taught me pretty much everything I know about choral music and singing. He invited me to sing in Opera Carolina's chorus. He made a difference in my life and thankfully I was able to tell him all that he meant to me a couple of months ago. He had a laugh that filled a room, he cared deeply for his friends and family, he inspired me to be a better musician, he was loved by all. I'm going to miss this dear man who truly was a gift to all who knew him. Heaven has gained a real gem. Rest in peace, my friend. Ann Atkinson

“ I worked with David for 13 years at the Blumenthal Performing Arts Center. He was an amazing leader and a true friend. He brought a smile to the faces of everyone he encountered, and he made my time there feel like I was part of a family! I miss our "talks" and his input on things, He made everything better. He will be missed. Rest in Peace my dear friend!

“ I think will remember my grandfather's diction most of all. He used a lot of words to tell stories from his travels and musical career that my younger self dubbed as "fancy" because I couldn't understand them. It got easier to follow and ask questions as I got older, but one thing that never changed were the nicknames he used. I still have his voicemails saved on my phone so I can hear him say "My girl" and "Sweetie" when I'm having a rough day. I miss you Papa, forever and always.

“ David was my choir director, vocal coach, mentor and friend. As a high school student, he encouraged me to keep singing - lessons that I will never forget. He helped to shape a generation of singers at First UMC in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio and was dearly loved by all.

David was a dear friend and gave our family so many happy memories. We sang in his choirs, played handbells, did crafts and treats for children's choirs, made Christmons for the sanctuary tree and had a million fun times together. He will be missed but never forgotten.

My Uncle taught Me at a Very Young age, how to keep My hands together by locking My thumbs so I could do a proper dive off a diving board. When I moved within an hour of NYC, He pushed Me to take advantage of taking in Broadway Shows. So many influences that He gave Me, will always guide Me to enjoy life to the fullest. I am Blessed & Grateful that Uncle David showed Love & Caring to Us All. Until We Are Together Again.
