“ Dear family, We were so sorry to hear that Dave passed, what a terrible loss. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. The Bible calls death an enemy and it certainly is such, no matter how old or how sick we become, death is not something that is exceptable. Rory was very happy to see Dave, in town, several weeks ago and could not get over how good he looked. Ooglad he was able to see the two of you and is a very good memory to remember. Hold on too your memories and draw close as a family. Our love to you all.
