

Dennis P. Rogers

November 11, 1959 - January 1, 2022

Dennis P. Rogers, of Windy Hill Rd., Shermans Dale died on Saturday, January 1, 2022 surrounded by loved ones.

Born November 11, 1959, in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Richard F. Rogers and Mary E. (Meighan) Rogers.

Dennis was a former Press Operator for Fry Communication. He loved sports especially football, he bled green for his Philadelphia Eagles. He religiously attended the Philadelphia Eagles games with family and friends and was a season ticket holder for decades. He enjoyed shooting pool, fireworks, and get-togethers with family and friends. He was always there to help anyone; he would give you the shirt off his back.

Dennis is survived by his wife, Bethann Rogers, Shermans Dale, his 2 daughters Joyce Rogers and fiancé David A. Johnson, New Bloomfield and Elizabeth Rogers and Ernie Rockwell, Shermans Dale; 6 grandchildren Ethan Smeigh, Owen Shanafelter, Zoe Smeigh, Jordan Morrison, Gia Rockwell, and Olivia Watson; siblings Richard (Madeline) Rogers, Donna (Edward) Scofield, Carol (David) Kemm, Christine (Joseph) Castelli, Edward (Amy) Rogers, along with many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents Richard F. and Mary E. Rogers, brother David J. Rogers and sister Mary E. Rogers.

A celebration of life will be held at 2pm, Saturday, January 22, 2022, at New Bloomfield VFW 71 Soule Rd New Bloomfield, PA 17068.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be sent to New Bloomfield VFW.

The Boyer Family is honored to handle the arrangements for the Rogers Family.

I can't stop crying 💔 that was beautiful 💔. Dennis, you never traveled an easy road but one thing for sure you ALWAYS looked out for your girls, if it wasn't Mommy, Beth your love of your life or Joyce and Liz, even your sisters, we knew you would be there whenever needed. I know your still hugging Mother Mary, most likely Dad has told you and David to knock it off several times already, please rest easy and know I love you and will miss you dearly, give Mommy, Daddy and David xoxo.

Loving the pictures, especially the ones with the long hair and Tom Selleck Mustache. Awesome 😎 pictures. Loved seeing the whole Rodgers clan and Aunt Mary and Uncle Dick. Till we talk again RIP brother (cousin). Tearing up typing this. And I can hear Uncle Dick saying knockoff the BS.

Oh my so many memories so many tears that all the pictures brought back. You were one of a kind, a quiet soul, an observer who was a true friend to those that became a part of your life. You had a heart of gold when it came to your family and close friends and anyone who needed a helping hand. Growing up with you was never dull and some of the paths you took were risky but never once did you forget who you were nor the family that loved you. You always had time for all the kids in the family. You always wanted to know how they were and what they were doing and they all loved their Uncle Dennis. You and your cooler of Bud traveled everywhere and we all knew that we had better pick some up before your visit!! Oh Den, I'm sorry you're gone so soon but happy to know you are no longer in pain and you've left us all with enough stories to fill a book. Give Mom, Dad, and David hugs from all of us and please both you and David try not to get into too much mischief, at least not until we are all together again to enjoy in the fun. I love you. Rest peacefully.

My Dad our Dad... he was one of a kind. He was our Father. He loved me and Joyce no questions. He loved his grandkids. He is my rock and will always be. At the moment my heart is broken however I know in my heart and soul that my Dad is at peace (that's the part I am holding on to so very tight) I know he is with mom-mom, pop-pop, and Uncle Dave. I know he is safe and in no pain. I will miss this man forever and anybody who was lucky enough to have his friendship/love I know you feel the same... R.I.P. Dad. ❤️
