

Edward Corie Naylor

April 28, 2016

Edward Corie Naylor, of Liverpool passed way on Monday, April 25, 2016 in Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

Born June 5, 1944 in Andover, MA he was the son of the late Charles and Rosella Naylor of Derry, NH.

Edward was a proud Navy veteran and was a graduate of Haverhill High School in Massachusetts. He then served in the army reserve for 4 years while living in Georgia. He was a dental laboratory technician who assisted in teaching dental techniques to dental students at the Medical College of Georgia. He eventually established, owned and operated the Naylor Dental Laboratory in Liverpool until his retirement in 1996.

After moving to Pennsylvania he met and married his wife of 32 years, Lonia Gaisior Smith.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two step daughters, Amy Weader and husband Jonathan of Harrisburg and Susan Swann and husband Steve of San Diego, CA. 2 brothers, Chuck Naylor and wife Judy and son Robbie of Georgetown, MA. and David Naylor and wife Joyce and sons, David Jr., Eric and Philip of Haverhill, MA. 5 grandchildren, David and Nathan Weader of Harrisburg and Emily, Alyssa and Ava Swann of San Diego, CA. His precious "Smoke" is already meowing his loss. Also surviving are several nephews.

To honor Edward's request, there will be no viewing or visitation. Private services will be held at the convenience of the family.

The Boyer Family is honored to handle the arrangements for the Naylor Family.
