“Special” Ed AKA Drum Major Armstrong

Ed has been our friend for over 20 years going back to the Susquehanna Pipes and Drums and over 20 years with Muskets of the Crown, a reenacting group engaged in French and Indian War and Revolutionary War events. Ed was an outstanding musician and comedian. Sometimes simultaneously. Once at Bushy Run he was to beat Reveille while marching through the camp. Now, each command has it's own drum beats and other units had already displayed a woeful ignorance of basic calls such as Assembly and Cease Fire. Ed chose to play Wipe Out instead of Reveille. Traveling to events with Ed always involved harsh words. Usually within the first 5 minutes. Why? Because he had you laughing so hard in those 5 minutes you couldn't see for the tears! Not good on the Turnpike!

RIP my friend. Go easy on the Celestial Choir while training the Celestial Drum Corps. Your friends haven't forgotten the fits you gave the Shrine Bands at City Island!

“ There never seems to be enough time. I only knew you for a few years at THD, but felt like we had been friends forever. Your laughter, even through times of adversity was contagious. You truly possessed a special gift. Your memory will live on as we think of a "life well lived." Thank you for being such a great friend. May your family and friends all know how special you truly were.

“ I worked with Ed at work at Carlisle. He was a great friend and coworker, he told me some good stories and showed me pictures of his reenacting that he did. I couldn't believe he had that much time to do any thing else with all he did. He always was joking around and smiling, he will be greatly missed because he was a GREAT person and always had a smile on his face. Condolences to the families

“ Ed and I became friends at Keith Jr high where he taught me all the best ways to joke around and get in trouble in the percussion section. I'll never forget his kind and generous way of watching out for me, two years his junior and much smaller than anyone else in the band. I'll miss his way of telling a great story, too. My condolences to his family.

“ A great Friend, True comrade, a brother in arms and always left a legacy for us all to follow. Ed you will never be forgotten as you set up a path for many to follow and will always be remembered by all as a selfless servant in all you did. Thank for taking the time for being a brother, and friend. You will be missed so much by many but we will all live on for you and condo our best to continue your legacy.

“ Ed was a terrific person. Him and I and others used to try and tell the best joke, he had a strange wit at times, but made everyone laugh. We and he always played, until time for funeral service then he was a professional. Walked into the VFW the other day for a funeral, first one since Ed passed. Was solemn everyone missed him but no one said anything. VFW set up a yuengling light and a sign in his memory. He will be missed by all.
