“ So sorry for your loss.

We were Gene's neighbors growing up. When we'd see Gene going putt-putt'n on his tractor going back the road or in the field, he would throw up his hand along with a gentle smile. Gene was always working. If he wasn't in the field or in the barn, he was in the butcher house. He was a faithful and respectful son to his hardworking parents, Harry and Betty and you never saw him out of uniform...the bib overalls and a hat.

Our deepest sympathy,

Sandy, Deb, Vick, Shug and Bill (Baughman)

“ I so remember ordering our beef each year and going to the shop to watch him carry a whole side of a beef over his shoulder. I'd always wonder how he had the strength to do that. He would then cut our steaks and grind our burger as we watched. Lenny and I enjoyed the conversations that took place in that little butcher shop. Gene was truly a special man and he touched many lives. I still remember his mother helping too. Fond memories for sure. Lenny and I send our love and hugs to Gene's family today, tomorrow and in the days and months to come.

“ I remember going over to the farm with dad before they were married and was always fun to hang around. Then he married my sister and so many great memories after that. Helped a couple times at deer season. He always had a joke to tell and memories to share. He was always there for the neighbors and his family.
