“ My deepest condolences to Pat, Jacob and family on Glenn’s passing. Glenn and I surveyed together for 51 years--- from my first day with the Game Commission October 1, 1968 until our final private survey on October 3, 2019 as two crotchety, old, semi-retirees. Glenn was already in pain from his arthritis when I met him in 1968, but it took 51 years before he decided we’d had enough fun and decided to hang it up. Glenn had an uncanny instinct for spotting old boundary evidence in the deepest woods, and he would scale the roughest terrain despite the pain I knew he carried always. He was not only my mentor, but he gave our son, Tommy a chance to survey in one of Glenn’s favorite places, Elk County, PA. Glenn became my closest friend and I will miss him. May he Rest in Peace, finally safe from all pain and suffering.

“ Pat & family, condolences and prayers on the passing of Glenn. I didn't get to know Glenn until after he retired from the PGC but was fortunate that he attended later honorary functions enabling me to get acquainted with him. Thank you for posting so many photos of him through the years. He earned and held the respect of everyone he worked with and quickly gained mine. And the stories from the old timers; oh, the stories! Glenn has a legacy of dedication, hard work and great contribution in building up the acreage of the SGL system and wildlife habitat. We often reference his records and remember him fondly. Rest in peace my friend.

“ My thoughts are with the family, I did not know Glenn but had the privilege of working with his son Jake. I can only imagine how proud Glenn must have been of Jake, knowing what a great person he turned out to be.

“ Pat and family. My sympathy to you and your family. When I first started with the PGC in 1966 one of the first survey crews I was on was Glenn's crew. I learned a lot from Glenn in the few weeks that I was assigned to his crew. I'll never forget the conversation he had with Chester McGee in Center Country as he was trying to buy a rifle from him. I am not sure if he ever made the deal. Rest in peace my friend. It was a pleasure knowing you.

There are too many good stories and memories to share on this post. It was a real blessing to know and work with Glenn! If anyone had a right to complain, it would have been him, but I never heard him do that. Never! He always had a smile and it was encouraging to me and I'm sure to many others. Know you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Hello Pat; Please accept our sympathy about the loss of Glenn. It was so good to see both of you a couple weeks ago at the PGC retirees picnic. Glenn was always a good person to work with on Game Lands boundaries in years gone by. I was always impressed by his cheerful attitude as we scrambled on steep mountains and hills around in Elk County years ago. He will be missed. John Dzemyan
