

Glenn W. Hollenbaugh

September 20, 1961 - July 31, 2025

Glenn Hollenbaugh, 63, of Newport passed away peacefully with family by his side on July 31, 2025. He retired from Cumberland Crossings retirement community after over 25 years of service there. In his free time he enjoyed hunting, fishing, woodworking, crossword puzzles, and his cats. He had a gray and white kitten named Boots that he enjoyed holding. Getting together with family for the holidays was Glenn's favorite thing to do, especially around Christmas time where he enjoyed his family Christmas jokes. He made his traditional fruit salad and baked beans at Christmas. Glenn enjoyed being outside planting flowers, he had his own special way on how to plant them. He enjoyed helping his neighbors anyway he could. NASCAR was his favorite sport to watch, his favorite drivers were Dale Earnhardt Sr, Dale Earnhardt Jr, and Chase Elliott. Glenn enjoyed traveling, such as to the beach and the race at Martinsville Speedway in Martinsville Va. He was a member of the Ickesburg fire company. Glenn was preceded in death by his parents Helen (Roberts) Hollenbaugh and Glenn Hollenbaugh Sr. He is survived by his loving, significant other, Samantha Trego, of over 25 years from Newport, His son Nathan Hollenbaugh (Amanda) of Newport, his grandson Alexander Hollenbaugh of Newport, his son Matthew Hollenbaugh of Elliottsburg, his sister Beverly Reisinger (Jack) of Newport, and his aunt Patricia Roberts of Newport. Glenn will be missed dearly by his family and friends.

A viewing will be held at Boyer Family Funeral Home, New Bloomfield on Aug 9, 2025 from 10-11am. Gary Bellis will officiate the service at 11am.

“ It was a genuine pleasure working with Glenn. Bo, Zack, Tammy, and the entire team extend their heartfelt condolences. He was a remarkable man, always generous with his time and eager to lend a hand with any fix. Always made light of any situation with a joke or two.
