

Gwendylon S. Reynolds

December 9, 1950 - June 24, 2022

Gwendylon S. Reynolds 72, of New Bloomfield entered into God's loving arms on Friday 24, 2022. She was born Dec. 09, 1950 in Carlisle Hospital, Carlisle, Pa.

She was the daughter of the late Janet M. and William Callio of Carlisle. She enjoyed talking to people and friends. She was a great wife and was loved her very much. They enjoyed each other and going to Church when she was able and working with others. God Blessed her very much while we were together. She was a wonderful wife and will be sorely missed by her family. Surviving is her husband of 51 loving years Rev. B.H. Reynolds and Aunt Jackie Handchew of Carlisle, Pa. A cousin, Glenda Kay Stough of Mount Holly Springs, Pa., and other cousins Richard (Dickie), and James.

A memorial service will be held at a later time.

The Boyer Family is honored to handle the arrangements for the Reynolds Family.

I knew her as Mrs. Sue. She was a very nice lady. She visited my old store where her husband came in. Her and I would just talk. I always was worried about her health. She never complained and always smiled. The best smile I ever saw! God must have decided that he wanted her more, and I know why. See you in heaven when it is my time Mrs. Sue loved and will be missed!!
