

Harry F. Minich

November 17, 1934 - October 16, 2024

Harry F. Minich, 89, of Shermans Dale, died Wednesday, October 16, 2024, at Forest Park Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. He was born in Shermans Dale on Saturday, November 17, 1934 and was the son of the late Hollie C. Minich and Miriam (Brown) Minich. He enjoyed traveling to Florida in the winter with his wife, Nina (Pekary), while spending their summer months in Delaware. He enjoyed hunting, as well as fishing, clamming and crabbing from his pontoon boat. He also enjoyed spending time with his family and extended family. He was a truck driver for Interstate Truck Line and Carolina Freight Carriers. Harry was a veteran of the U.S. Army. All who knew Harry appreciated him, his smile and sense of humor.

He was the widower of Nina Pekary and is survived by his daughters Shelia M. (Charles) Sheaffer and Sherri M. (Alan) Hoffman; grandchildren Charles (Chaz) and Brandi Sheaffer, Cyle and Christine Sheaffer, Carletta and Joseph Elakrah and Catrina and Charles Spano, along with 12 great grandchildren and 10 great-great grandchildren.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers, John and Walter; and three sisters Olive Dick, Mary Jane Minich and Anna Minich. Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, October 22, at the Shermans Dale UMC, 40 Windy Hill Road, Shermans Dale. Pastor George Kell will officiate. Burial will be in Westminster Memorial Garden. Viewing is Tuesday at the church from 10-11 a.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Shermans Dale Fire Company or

New Bloomfield VFW.

“ Sheila and Sherri and families. I am so sorry to hear about Uncle Harry's passing. As you know he has always been a special person to me and I will miss him. He has missed Aunt Nina for so long, now he can be with her and the rest of the family again. He loved God so I know he is in heaven. You both took such good care of him. I love you both.
