Great memories of Helen for for 45 years. At the farmhouse, working at Wengers, Mt Gilead church, senior center trips, good friends with my mother, and my many visits, chats and inspiration from her. She was a very remarkable lady who I cherished and loved. Now she is God's angel and with her heavenly, family and friends.
My love, prayers and blessings to all of her family.

They tell you in nursing school not to get attached to your patients. We'll they never met Helen! Always smiling no matter how she was feeling, always appreciative and never an unkind word. I will miss her hugs...she will always be one of my favorite patients💕
