“ RIP – Herb Shaffer

You were one of the giants in my life, I have so many memories of you.

You were an amazing big brother to my mom, and I did not understand all that you did for her until I was older. Thank you for that.

I remember you at the house on the West side, drinking Pawpaw's coffee; you worked at Dundoff's grocery right up the street and were in and out of the house all the time.

I remember the 'whisker rubs' which was a tradition I continued, many a child with a red cheek walked away from meeting me wondering who the hell Uncle Herb was and a good many knew who you were.

My small tribute to you sir.

Aunt Joy would get me ready for school in the mornings, one of my favorite memories is after Nancy's great corn heist you and Aunt Joy would try to get me to wear the hoodie from that night for school, for play, anything outside.

Now, I'm 6 or 7 years old, just been shot at and I am convinced the farmer was out there looking for me, and you are chasing me around with that hoodie. Ok, maybe that's not one of my favorite memories, but it still makes me chuckle. To be honest, if the roles had been reversed, I would have done the same thing.

Talking with you helped give me insight into the family, my dad, my mom and so many other things.

I'll always be grateful for that.

There is so much more to say, but I have been struggling with this and need to say something.

From one tin can sailor to another, I wish you fair winds and following seas.

In place of flowers, I have donated to the Navy-Marine Corps Relief Fund in your name.

It was a pleasure and my honor to have known you, I will miss you.
