

James L. Campbell III

October 30, 1973 - September 26, 2021

Obituary

James L. Campbell III, 47, born October 30, 1973, stepped into the loving arms of his Savior on September 26, 2021, in his home in New Bloomfield.

He was the son of James L. Campbell Jr and Rosie Campbell of New Bloomfield, both surviving.

He is also survived by a brother Kevin Campbell and a niece Aleyna Campbell of New Bloomfield, two children Savannah Klunder (Jeffrey) of Shermansdale and Anthony Scola of Massachusetts, and two grandchildren Adalyn and Waylon Klunder. Also surviving are grandparents James L. Campbell Sr and Adrianna Campbell of Millerstown, and Helen Brown of Montana, as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife Heather Campbell, and grandparents Kenneth and June Miller of Newport, and Jack Brown of Montana.

Jim was an artistic soul at his core. Anyone who knew him would be confronted with some aspect of his artistic skill, be it his ability to very eloquently put his thoughts, feelings, and emotions onto paper or into words that would tug at the heart strings of all who received them, or his ability to realistically recreate the world around him in charcoal or pencil drawings, or possibly the most important to him personally...his ability to let his singing voice resonate in the hearts and minds of all those who had the pleasure of hearing him belt out a verse and chorus. Whether in church on a Sunday morning, sitting out back around a fall night bonfire, or on stage in a local pub, Jim was always ready to sing at a moment's notice. Music surrounded him at all times, and it was the driving pulse in his veins. The privilege to lead worship in his local church was what he often said was his calling.

While Jim will be dearly, grievously missed here on earth, there was nothing on his heart that was more prominent than being reunited with his "Bonny Lass" Heather, who went on before him only a little more than two years earlier. And so, we celebrate his reunion in Heaven...with her, his Jesus, and so many others who have gone before him. "Ne obliviscaris"

“ I was so deeply saddened by the news of Jim's passing. He was such an intelligent, kind, thoughtful and pleasant man. I enjoyed many conversations with him when I was working late and he would stop in while working his shift rounds. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and loved ones who were near and dear to his heart. He had a lot of love and pride for his family as it would often show during our conversations. He will be missed by many. Godspeed to you, James! Rest easy in the arms of our Lord.

“ Jim Boy, you will be missed here on earth but the ones who are left, however I know you are up in Heaven singing your heart out with your one true love. Give her a hug for too. I know you and Heather are sing your songs together now and I know my Grammy is listening to both your beautiful voices with the biggest smile on her face as Pappy sits beside her. I will never forget the little moments we got to share. All the times we stood outside during a family picnic and dad and you talked up a storm about anything. You are now another one of the Miller family's angels that is now with the Lord. Sing loud and proud for me. Cause I will sure be listening for you someday when I get to go to heave

“ O Jimmy, you will be so very much missed. I remember when you first met Heather. The trips to see her were always exciting. You and her were surely brought together by God. Two beautiful souls now reunited, hand in hand with the Lord Jesus Christ. Couldn't ask for anything better. We shall all see you soon.

“ This is probably one of the best memorial tributes I have ever read. Jim graduated 2 years before me in high school and I remember always being greeted with a smile and a head nod. Yet another life gone way too soon. Rest in peace Jim for you will always be remembered. ❤️
