“ Judy and I so enjoyed our times visiting with Janet and staying overnight in her home. And now she no longer lives here. Janet Smith went home to be with the Lord on November 25, 2020. She is now where she really belongs. This wonderful woman will be missed so much by so many. She is a godly saint and has an excellent testimony. She is humble, hospitable, quiet, and content in the Lord. It definitely is a privilege and a pleasure to have known her for these last five years. Judy and I sorrow at her absence and we rejoice at her presence with the Lord. She is more alive than ever, in better company than ever, and completely freed forever from the fallen-ness of this present world. Imagine how good and great and glorious is her present condition and circumstance. We also will experience that by trusting Christ as our Savior, as she did. She would want me to tell you that. Thank you; Lord, for you and for the time that you gave us with her.
