

Jeanette R. Smith

December 23, 1966 - May 25, 2025

Jeanette Smith, (Netty) 58 of Loysville PA, Originally of Connellsville PA, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday May 25, 2025, at UPMC Carlise She was born on December 23, 1966 in Akron, Ohio. A daughter of the late Albert Sr and Sandra (Lowry) Fletcher. Jeanette was a stay-at-home mom and enjoyed working at Heritage days, yard sales, game shows & collecting purses. She was a devoted Wife, daughter, mother, sister & aunt If you had the pleasure of getting to know her you wouldn't forget her, You would also know every word to the song Shoop by Salt-N-Pepa .Her laughter echoes in our ears, the love she gave will remain in her absences, she was a beautiful soul and carried it with her wherever she would go, she was feisty and was not shy to speak her mind, If she had something to say rest assure you'd hear it. But she was kind, funny & full of love. She was the loudest person cheering you on and the shoulder you could count on. She was a selfless woman her love had no limits she would do the impossible if it meant she could make someone happy even for a moment. As our eyes always look for you & our minds always wait for you, our hearts will forever miss you.

If she were here today, she would just want people to love a little more and stress a lot less.

Jeanette will be deeply missed by her Family & Friends.

She is Survived by Her beloved Husband Brian Smith, Her 'Stepson' Braden Smith and their 4 children Ronnie, Angel, Daniel & Sandy Smith. Jeanette is also survived by her siblings Albert Fletcher Jr of Connellsville. Terri Molinaro & husband Coco of Connellsville. James Fletcher & Wife Chris of Scottdale. Mark Fletcher & wife Tracy of Connellsville. Helen Crawford & husband Randy of Ickesburg. Gloria Cornish of Perryopolis. many Nieces & Nephews & Great Nieces & Nephews.

In addition to her parents Jeanette was preceded in death by her many aunts & uncles. Brother-In-Law John Cornish Sr, As well as her nephew John Cornish JR and Great Niece Naiona Garland. \ “ Aunt netty I could write a million words & share a million memories, You weren't only my aunt but one of my best friends, my person and you treated me as your own child. For many years living next to you until the day you moved even then coming to see you all the time. Our daily talks those good morning and good night text and you never missed one day to tell me you loved me. I will cherish our relationship and memories forever. We spent so much time together people believed I was your son. We shared a bond like no other. I am forever grateful for you Snootchie. My heart breaks into a thousand pieces knowing I won't ever get to have those late night talks again. The shopping trips and you going to have me called over the loud speaker at Walmart by some random name. To the hardest days we faced together and the best ones. I will forever hold onto. I promised you the day we was at the hospital that no matter what I'd be there for you, uncle Brian, and the kids. I will keep my promise Aunt Netty. I love you Snootchie. Love your Snootch, Son, Mackydoo.

“ Aunt Netty I don't even know where to start. I spent most of my childhood with you every weekend, every holiday vacation and every summer. All the mounds of memories we made together there are soooo many and I will forever cherish them. And then uncle Brian coming into our lives in 2004 and Brady he was 5 was a blessing me and my brother both took instant attachment and love for him and Brady and although I was sad to watch you move away I knew you were happy and loved and he would take care of you and bring you home anytime you wanted as he did and all the countless times he came back with you to get me so I could spend weeks with you all and watch Brady play ball and heritage days and Hershey park and just the loads of memories and fun from the apartment to the house you got after you got married. It will forever be an honor that you chose me to stand by your side on your wedding day as your maid of honor I still have my dress and will forever keep it as it means a lot to me and my flowers. And my bracelet you had made with my name on it . Just as much as it was such an honor to my daddy to stand beside uncle Brian as his best man he talked to everyone about that all the time and how much it meant to him and how much uncle Brian meant to him and how much he loved him. Always remember despite anything and anyone else I love you and nothing and no one can ever change that and I know you loved me. My daddy left me unexpectedly while battling cancer 5 months ago and now the same has happened with you it's so crazy to think that you're both gone . And the day I have to come say my final later later to you will be 6 months that my daddy has flown to heaven. And now you're there with him and my brother again and pappy and Grammy to say my heart aches is an understatement I could go on and on about our memories but then i would be here forever writing them all down. I will love you always and miss you. Rest sweetly aunt Netty.

To uncle Brian you've been a blessing since the day you came into my life and Brady thank you for always loving me and always bringing aunt Netty when my brother got sick and always being there and mamal and pap always there and gram and being blessed to be loved by them thank you always showing up for birthday parties and graduation party.and the wedding I was in for a friend you even showed up for that and it meant so much. I hope you know how much I truly love you and always will. I'm praying for you and the kids and I'll always be here to help in anyway I possibly can. I can't believe Aug5,2023 was the last time we were all together for the last time Grammy,Aunt Netty and my Daddy . Then we lost all 3. Life can be so cruel . But I pray for god to put help into our hearts and minds to help us push through and to know that one day we will see and be with them again.

Love you forever ,
Your Niece KatKat
