

Judy Morrison

October 12, 1943 - May 25, 2026

Judy Louise Morrison (Miller), 82, of Shermans Dale, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on May 25, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on October 12, 1943, Judy dedicated her life to caring for others as a homemaker and daycare provider, touching countless lives with her kindness, warmth, and generosity.

Judy was a wonderful grandmother who lovingly babysat all of her grandchildren and was surrogate grandmother to many nieces, nephews and other children who she cared for. Her home was always filled with love, laughter, and the comforting smells of her famous homemade cooking. She will be especially remembered for her delicious chicken salad, homemade Easter eggs, donuts, and pot pie, which became cherished family favorites through the years.

Above all else, Judy devoted herself to her family. She always placed others before herself and was the most loving mother, wife, grandmother, and friend anyone could ask for. Her greatest joy in life was spending time with her family, especially her six grandchildren (Paige, Jake, Keeghan, Jordan, Tre and Mitch) and seven great-grandchildren, who brought endless happiness to her life.

Judy is survived by her beloved husband of 64 years, John Morrison; her son,

John Morrison, Jr. of Shermans Dale, Pennsylvania, and his wife, Sherry Morrison; and her daughter, Jodi Weber of Shermans Dale, Pennsylvania, and her husband, Joe Weber, a brother Randy Miller of New Bloomfield (late wife Linda) and a sister, Robyn Livingston and her husband Steve of Mechanicsburg.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Jennifer Radel, her daughter-in-law, Deb Morrison, her father and mother, Charles Miller Sr. and Violet (Adams) Miller, a brother, Charles Miller Jr. and his late wife Shirley.

Judy's love, compassion, and selfless spirit will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Her family finds comfort in the many memories she created and the lasting example of unconditional love she leaves behind.

“ I met Judy after becoming friends with her son, John. She was very nice from the moment we met. I knew she was somebody that I wanted to be friends with. I never believed anyone who said she was less than perfect. She would always offer food or drinks and make fun of the Orioles. She didn't have a choice in that matter. At some point when she had less than perfect hearing she thought I sounded like Conway Twitty. I would regularly sing Happy Birthday Darling anytime I saw her. I wish i had one more opportunity. Rest in Peace Judy, you will be missed by many.
