December 2, 1946 - September 6, 2025

On September 6, 2025, Kathryn Mary Dorundo was called home to be with the Lord after a courageous battle with cancer. She passed peacefully at her home, surrounded by her loved ones.

Born December 2, 1946 in Dundalk, Maryland, Kay met and married the love of her life, Edward Dorundo. Together they settled in Perry County, Pennsylvania, where she embraced her role as a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother.

“ Kay was in a grief support group led by Sister Maria Theresa in 2006 after her husband died. Two other friends and I were also in the group, because we had lost spouses. We all grew close and had lunches together for quite a few years. I will always remember how kind and courageous Kay was. Such a great, irrepressible spirit! She is a special friend to me, and she is very much loved by Sister Marie Theresa, who will be praying for Kay and her family.
