“ I love the fact that Linda and my brother ❤️ (Curley) have known each other since first grade and knew some day they would get married. They drove to Maryland when in high school to get married. Now that's true ❤️ love. They always took care of each other. Linda was a wonderful Mom and a great Wife. John and I will really miss her. Linda and I would talk on the phone some times about family, cooking, sewing, and just dumb things. I miss that we had not talked for a while for the same dumb reasons, sickness, working, and just plain busy. I will always regret that. Love and prayers 🙏❤️💕 to you Linda. Rest in peace.
