“ Mike, no more pain. Peace, comfort and happiness forever. Happy you gave mom the letter from all of us. We are sure Grammy is giving you big hugs and you two are laughing all day. Grandma Garland will be giving you a peanut butter piece and a peanut butter cup every day. Hunting seasons were wonderful times. Proud to be your aunt and uncle. I know Jesus welcomed you with his arms wide open. Will see you again. Love you always and forever, Uncle Charles and Aunt Connie

“ When I was young, there was a short time when Michael lived with us, and lord knows I was a bratty little nuisance to him. Later, when I was a teenager, I lived with them for a little while and he became the nuisance. Always teasing me or keeping a watchful eye on boys I had over. I pretended to be annoyed by it, but always appreciated that he was the big brother I didn't have. That's the kind of guy Mike was, looking out for everyone.

I will always remember his laugh; it was infectious.

And whenever you'd ask Mike how he was doing, his response was always 'every day above ground is a good day' so in honor of Mike, that's my new motto.

Miss you and love you always.

“ Today our family is hurting. We miss Michael. Thank you Jenn and family for all your care and comfort for Michael for Michael. Things will never be the same but this family is resilient and we'll get through this together.

It helps me to remember that God could've taken Michael from us a long time ago. Instead, by His grace and mercy, God allowed him to be with us as He saw fit. We were lucky to live we Michael. Cousins got to grow up together. Family traditions were created. Holidays were celebrated and vacation memories were made. And we can't forget the ever-important PA hunting season! Michael was always a dependable, go-to guy and he never hesitated to drop whatever he was doing to lend you a hand.

Because of Michael, our circle of friends grew and our family became bigger. We have Shane. A handsome son, grandson, nephew, and cousin. And we have an equally gorgeous daughter, granddaughter, niece, and cousin in Katie. Michael may no longer be with us, but we see his presence through them and know his spirit is here with us.

Michael is missed but he will never be forgotten.

“ Michael. Where do I start. I'll start by saying how much I am going to miss you and how much I love you. I am going to miss that devil grin of yours and your laugh. Oh how I loved your laugh. You eyes. You had the prettiest blue eyes. I was very envious of them. I know that you are up in heaven with everyone who has loved you and you are no longer in pain . Someday we will see each other again. Love Aunt Dotty and Uncle Rick.
