

Nickolas Clayton Watson

December 25, 2018

Nickolas "Nick" Clayton Watson, 29, of Shermans Valley Road, New Bloomfield passed from this life to eternal life early on Sunday, December 23, 2018 as the result of a hit and run incident in New Bloomfield.

Born February 1, 1989 in Harrisburg, he was the son of Roger and Brenda (Sullenberger) Watson of New Bloomfield. He was a patriot and served his country in the United States Marine Corp. and was a member of the New Bloomfield VFW Post 7463 and Newport VFW Post 34, Newport American Legion Post 177. He was also a member of the Social Order of Owls of Newport and a 2007 graduate of West Perry High School. He coached New Bloomfield Youth Soccer.

Nick was a gentle and kind man. He had a soft voice and a caring, helping heart. He was an employee of Ferster's Meat Market and always had a kind word for all who came into the store. He loved hunting and fishing and everything about the great outdoors and nature. He enjoyed spending time with his friends and family and really liked the tail gate parties at the Philadelphia Eagles Football games.

Surviving in addition to his parents are his Fiance', Joyce Rogers and a daughter, Olivia; two brothers, Seth and Gerit Watson all of New Bloomfield. Also Ethan Smeigh, Zoe Smeigh and Jordan Morrison. There are also many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Services will be held at 1 PM on Friday, December 28, 2018 in Trinity Christian Church, 106 W. High Street, New Bloomfield. Rev. Ed Boyle will officiate. Burial will be in New Bloomfield Cemetery. Viewing hours will be 10 AM-1 PM on Friday at the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to New Bloomfield Fireman's Association, PO Box 11, New Bloomfield, PA. 17068.

Boyer Family Funeral Home is honored to handle the arrangements for the Watson Family.
