Olive V. Mislyan

9/11/31 - 12/3/20

So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

- 2 Corinthians 4:18

Olive V. Mislyan, 89, of Shermans Dale, went to be with the Lord at West Shore Hospital on Thursday, December 3, 2020 due to complications from COVID-19. Born September 11, 1931 she was the daughter of the late George and Mary (Hower) Miller of Elliottsburg.

Olive was loved by everyone who knew her. She always had a smile on her face and was happy to help anyone in need. She was a kind, selfless, and giving woman. She accepted everyone and had a forgiving heart. Olive enjoyed canning, baking, working in her garden and was an avid bird watcher; humming birds were her favorite.

She retired after many decades of employment from the Holy Spirit Hospital Dietary department. She was a life-long member of Trinity Christian Church in New Bloomfield and was an active member of the church community.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her loving husband, Joseph R. Mislyan Jr., her son David Mislyan and her siblings: Dorothy Stone, Jennifer Boose and Edgar Miller.

Surviving are her children: Linda Webster and husband Michael of Shermans Dale, Joseph Mislyan III of New Bloomfield, Diane Everitt and significant other Dion Boyer of Shermans Dale and Susan Mislyan-Johnson and husband Allen of Shermans Dale; Grandchildren: Dawn, Joseph, Ashley, Cassandra, Shiane and Lauren; 3 great-grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ *I'm already missing those "Mom, do you want to run with me and get out of the house for a while?" Most of the times, she didn't get out of the truck. She just rode along.
I'm gona miss saying "Don't touch anything" We wiped off everything, all the time. She didn't sit down if we went out for something to eat without us wiping off the table and chairs. We constantly were putting hand sanitizer on her hands. She would tell me that I was gona get her drunk with all the alcohol we put on her hands.*
