

Patricia Prosser

May 5, 1939 - December 5, 2021

Patricia Ann Prosser, 82, of Newport, Pennsylvania passed away unexpectedly on December 5, 2021.

Patricia was born in Dauphin County on May 5, 1939. She was raised and loved by her adoptive mother, Laura Mae Lucas of Harrisburg.

Patricia was a dedicated wife to her Husband, James John Prosser, also deceased. They married on September 4, 1954 and moved to Perry County in 1961. Their legacy includes six children, seven grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Those cherishing Patricia's memory include her son James Gilton Prosser, with his spouse Mary Prosser and their child James Prosser; her daughter Katherine Laura Schreiber with her spouse William Schreiber and their child Brandon Schreiber, Brandon's wife Ashley and their son Lincoln; her daughters Cheryl Ann Prosser, Chrystal Lynn Prosser and Janine Patricia Douglas with Janine's husband Mark and their sons Alex and Ben; and her son Kevin Earl Prosser with his children Maxwell, Trinity, and Seth.

Patricia was a member of Hope Eternal United Methodist Church in Newport. She worked as a Deputy Prothonotary in Perry County and was the Director of Perry County Domestic Relations until her retirement in 2001. As a Director she had a keen sense of fairness and was known and respected for seeking common sense and equitable solutions for the litigants who came through her office.

Patricia was fiercely loyal to her children and a beacon of unconditional love. Her children's dedication, admiration, and respect for her will live on and will be paid forward by them to the grandchildren she held so dear. She is loved deeply and is missed greatly. She will forever be “mom”.

Private services are being held. In lieu of flowers, the family would request donations to the Autism Society of the Greater Harrisburg Area at P.O. Box 101, Enola, Pa 17025.
