“ My Father and Mr. Paulus were very close friends. So close that it extended to their families as well. My brothers and I spent a lot of time with Heather, Shannon and Richie growing up. My heart breaks for you and the families you have since had. It would be very difficult to speak of my childhood for very long without mentioning your places in it, and I am incredibly grateful for that and will never forget you for it. The world has lost an amazing man.
