“ You will be missed Aunt Ruthie. Because of your cerebral palsy, you had a pretty rough life. But you didn't let that hold you back. You were a wonderful mother to Doug. You had a mind as sharp as anyone, so full of knowledge. You knew all of the family history, names, places and anything we needed to know. One thing that makes me so happy is knowing you accepted Christ as your personal savior. I know because I led you and Doug in that prayer when you weren't sure if you were saved. And because of that you no longer struggle to talk, and you no longer struggle to walk. You can rest now with pap and grandma, and your brothers and sisters. And also with your Savior. I LOVE YOU RUTHIE!!!
