Sandra L. Hoch, 49, of Duncannon, a loving daughter, selfless mother, and friend to many, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday January 24th. She was a graduate of Susquenita High School, Sandi lived and raised her family in Duncannon, PA. She was born to the late Lester P. Hoch and Berhtha J. Hoch. She was preceded in death by her sister, Becky Hoch.

Sandi often said that her greatest accomplishment in this life was her two children that will miss her dearly. She is survived by her daughter Kolie Hoch, as well as her son Stephen G. Hoch and his wife Jessica A. Wright-Hoch. Sandi cherished the time she spent with family and is also survived by her brothers David R. Hoch, L, Paul Hoch and Mark Keys.

This entire page could easily be filled with fond memories that her friends and family will always hold dear, but mostly Sandi will be remembered as a giver. She consistently put others before herself, and will always be remembered in that light. Her passions included her love for horses and many dogs. When not at work at Novitas Solutions, she spent her free time traveling, going to the beach, watching dirt track races and NASCAR.

Above all else, Sandi treasured the time she was able to spend surrounded by friends and family.

Services will be held at 11 AM Tuesday, January 31, 2017 in the Boyer Family Funeral Home, New Bloomfield. Friends may call at the funeral home one hour prior to the service.
