

Susan K. Hetrick

February 28, 1955 - November 11, 2025

Susan K. Hetrick, born February 28, 1955 to Charles and Mary Tyson in Glengary, WV, a beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and devoted woman of faith, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on November 11, 2025.

Susan lived a life rooted in grace, compassion, and a deep love for God, whose presence she saw reflected in the world around her.

Born with an artist's heart, Susan found joy and meaning in all forms of art. Whether creating her own work or admiring the beauty crafted by others, she viewed art as a way to connect with the divine. She also cherished the natural world, finding peace in quiet walks, blooming flowers, and the simple wonder of God's creation.

Above all, Susan treasured her family. She is survived by her loving husband, James, as well as her children, Mandy, Josh, daughter in law Sara, and grandchildren Rowan and Peyton who were her greatest earthly blessing. Her gentle spirit, steady faith, and warm encouragement remain gifts she leaves behind for each of them.

Susan's life was a testament to kindness, creativity, and devotion. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her and forever remembered for the light she brought into the lives of others.

A service to honor her life will be held at Glenvale Church of God 1970 New Rd. Marysville, PA 17053 with visitation at 10am service at 11 and refreshments to follow.

"May she rest in the eternal peace of God's loving embrace."

“ So sorry to hear of Sue's passing. I remember spending the night at Sue's when we were in elementary school and her parents had the store on 11/15. I always felt at home at Sue's and enjoyed being there. I pray for peace and love for her family. I have thought of her often and wished I kept in touch over the years - this is a reminder to get in touch with those who we think of because we don't know when we won't be able to do it. May God have granted you the comfort you need in this time.

“ Dear Sandy and Ron. All of the Hetrick family,
I was so saddened to learn of Sue's illness back in July. I have several fond memories of Sue. She was a chaperone with me while Josh and our daughter Amanda were in middle school.
I also remember the many times I was at the west shore farmers market and I would make my way upstairs to say hello to her and Mandy in their lovely little salon.
I have a few pottery pieces Sue made and a Beautiful silk scarf that I received from Sandy her sister in law.
Sue had made it. Even though they are material items I will treasure them even more.
Sue was a lovely lady with many gifts.
May God comfort all of you at this most difficult time. My prayers are with you.
Sending love, Kathy Hunter 🙏💜
