“ Aunt Tammy I remember living with you, Liz, grandma and John. Some of my greatest childhood memories came from those years. You were my dads sister but it felt like you were my older sister. You would watch over me and make sure I was ok. When you met Chip, you and Chip would take me with you. Some of my best times was when I would spend them with you and Chip. God made you and Chip for each other. I am so proud that you both showed each other how much you loved and depended on one another. Thank you for being that aunt that was there for me. I always felt true love coming from you! Life lesson. Enjoy the one your with while God still gives you that time to be together. Don't say you don't have time or are too busy. I love you aunt Tammy!
