

Tracy Lynn Myers

December 21, 2018

Tracy Lynn (Hockenberry) Myers, 43, of Little Boston Road, Duncannon, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, December 19, 2018 at her Penn Twp. Home.

Born January 30, 1975 in Camp Hill, PA, she is the daughter of Donald and Lona (Brashear) Hockenberry of Shermans Dale.

Tracy was a Proverbs 31 woman, a devout Christian and a member of Abundant Harvest Church of Duncannon. She was a loving wife, mother, daughter and sister. She and her husband owned and operated Zeiderelli's Pizza in Duncannon. She was a 1993 Graduate of West Perry High School and received her bachelor's degree from Grove City College.

She enjoyed herb and vegetable gardening and had hiked the Appalachian Trail twice from Georgia to Duncannon. In addition, she had been a counselor at YDC, Loysville and started and operated the Puppy Parlor, Duncannon.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are her husband of 17 years, Arthur W. Myers Jr., a son, Micah and a daughter, Zoey at home. A brother Jeremy Hockenberry and wife Angie, of New Bloomfield.

Services will be held at 11 AM on Saturday, December 29, 2018 at Abundant Harvest

Church, 510 New Bloomfield Road, Duncannon. Her Pastor, Rev. Matthew Zang will officiate.

The Boyer Family is honored to handle the arrangements for the Myers Family.