“ I can echo the words of my sister, Angela Gellenbeck, when she described Sister Virginia as she did... I was always drawn to Sister Virginia's meek and quiet spirit. Although the miles and circumstances of life prevented me from going back to Pennsylvania, I would think of her often, and know that she was still being faithful! I heard she listened to every message put up on the website!
I cherish the memories of being in Duncannon for the tent meetings 5 years in a row. (81-85) It impacted my life deeply and forever. Sister Virginia, you have won! We will meet again around the Throne! Jeanne Eck

“ I'm sorry to just be learning about the homegoing of this valiant soldier of the cross! I met Sis. Virginia when I was just thirteen. I thought I had never met a more angelic woman. Through the years she has been such a brave sufferer. My thoughts and prayers go out to Sandy and Penny and all in the Duncannon congregation. We may have forgotten to keep in touch with Sis. Virginia as we should have as the years passed, but Jesus certainly did not.

Sincerely,
Angela Gellenbeck
