

Wayne Weibley Jr.

May 13, 1952 - December 20, 2025

"I could hold you close but I just couldn't keep you here"

Wayne William Weibley Jr.

SON, BROTHER, UNCLE, HUSBAND, FATHER, FRIEND

Born to Wayne and Anna Weibley he and two sisters, Flo and Beverly, were raised in the town of Ickesburg PA. Wayne was the youngest of the three siblings and carried the torch for his beloved family through the final days of his life. Always proud of who he was and where he came from. Wayne's real-life hero was his father, and he told many stories of their adventures together hunting, farming, and just hanging out. He excelled at, and loved the game of baseball, and Dad was his biggest fan. Wayne loved being an uncle, old and new, to many nieces and nephews. Remembering fondly everything from their births to family picnics and playing ball in the yard. Throughout the years he has showered his beloved wife Donna with joy, happiness, kindness and love, with a surprise or two now and then. Wayne loved and respected his two bonus sons, Wes and Jacob Portzline, and adored his daughter in-law Jamie Portzline. Proud father to son, Nicholas Weibley, whom he loved spending time with whether it be going on a hunting adventure or just watching a Steelers game or a race at home. He held his friends at the highest level whether they be hunting buddies, work buddies, old high school friends or neighbors; all were very important to him. Wayne William Weibley Jr. was much more, and more loved, than words can express. He leaves behind a family of broken hearts but with beautiful memories of a man who loved and was loved.
